

Explore the plot of your favorite show!

Exposition: What is the setup for this play's plot? Who are the characters? Where are we?	Conflict: Why is this story taking place? What are the characters facing? Where do they need to go, what do they have to do, etc.	Rising Action: What's their journey to the climax of the story? What happens before the big turning point?	Climax: What is the sudden turning point/"moment they've been waiting for"? What changes because of this?	Falling Action: Was it a win or a loss for the protagonist (main character), and what do they have to do in order to resolve the conflict from the beginning?	Resolution: How does the story end? How does this change/affect the characters? Is it the ideal situation for the characters/story?

Name of play/musical:

Setting (where does it take place? What time?):